Moscow: Tsentrpoligraf, 2007 (translated from Spanish). From the very first pages, the author, who is also the translator of the novel, challenges the reader: "Now read this as a text!" And further: "For a person who is not familiar with the Spanish language, there is no better way to understand what the book is about than to read Spanish Nights in the original." And further: "In my opinion, the translation of such a text requires a very great tact from the translator." And further: "Walden, or Life in the Woods is one of the few novels I love."
