[Glutathione S-transferase A1 polymorphism in twins from the population in the Central Military Hospital at Toruń]. Glutathione S-transferase (GST) A1 gene polymorphism has been studied on the samples of peripheral blood of healthy twins, and malignant patients; there were examined also persons chronically exposed to polycyclic aromatic hydrocarbons (PAHs). The obtained results have been analysed. It has been demonstrated that GST A1 gene polymorphism did not have an essential role in the pathogenesis of lung cancer, colon cancer or breast cancer in adult women living in a polluted area. It has also been demonstrated that persons chronically exposed to PAHs had increased frequency of the GST A1*B1 polymorphism. 992 So.2d 1276 (2008) R.J.M. v. DEPT. OF CHILDREN AND FAMILIES. 2070646. Court of Civil Appeals of Alabama. September 19, 2008. Petitions for rehearing denied November 14, 2008. Certiorari denied. Alabama Supreme Court 1080515. AMENDED OPINION CORRECTED AND SUBSTITUTED FOR ORIGINAL OPINION OF SEPTEMBER 19, 2008 YATES, Judge. This is a termination-of-parental-rights case involving the minor child S.P. The mother, R.J.M., appealed, arguing that the juvenile court erred in entering an adoption judgment based on an order that had been entered in a best-interest case. That judgment was entered after the juvenile court ordered that the Department of Children and Families ("the Department") should proceed as a joint case for best interest, and after the Department filed a motion to dismiss the petition for adoption. R.J.M. has filed a petition for a writ of certiorari; the Department has responded in support of the juvenile court's judgment. In its response, the Department argues that this court should not review the juvenile court's July 16, 2007, order, because R.J.M. did not file a motion or a petition for a writ of certiorari within 42 days after the Department entered its proposed order that the juvenile court approved, as required under Rule 28(C), Ala. R. Juv. P. However, the juvenile court's judgment was entered before that order. *1277 The Alabama Supreme Court has stated that "a
