Fusion-Apex features a new game-specific goal system which allows you to attack and defend your goal or opponent's goal, with varying degrees of tension and control. Three-step defensive blocks give you the power to decide whether you want to attack or defend your goal. In this new match-changing mode, everything you do on the field has an immediate impact - create a new attacking opportunity, secure an unexpected goal or dig your goalkeeper out. Players now have more control over choosing moves to the ball, showing which skills they want to use and for what purpose. The New FUT Transfer Market gives you even more control, with direct negotiations allowed with the club you want to buy and/or sell your player from. Negotiating opens up new possibilities, and you can choose to pay extra for your player or try to sell him for more.
