Journal of Material Culture (Volume 4, Number 2, April 1995) (Historical articles) The volume is devoted to three topics: At least as early as the late 1930s a strong group of scholars in Latin America had adopted as a working hypothesis the idea that the major pre-Columbian Mesoamerican and Maya ceramic series would be found to be essentially a chronology covering the Mesoamerican Classic Period. This article addresses the eclectic ritualism that has emerged from the convergence of the Missoni and Puig Guica shops in Puigcerd  <sup>3</sup> and the neighboring villages. Despite the comparatively recent establishment of the art in this region, the aesthetic formalisms of the objects -- including curvilinear motifs and unorthodox aesthetic solutions -- have clearly been in use for decades. Cortazar's stories.. The translated title, Bestiario, may be more accurate than A man who had been blinded by acid after being doused in it by a woman was left in a "lifeless, hopeless and untenable" state and could have died if he was not put into intensive care. Medical sources said the victim was "a ticking time bomb" and had to be put on a life support machine as his condition deteriorated due to the burns he suffered. The 51-year-old victim was taken to hospital after he fell into a ditch near his home in Kirkby near Leigh, Greater Manchester, on May 4. He was found by a passer-by and taken to the Royal Manchester Hospital with serious burns to his face, head and limbs. Coronor's Judge, William Wright QC, branded the woman, who was known to him, a "sick and depraved" person. The trial at Minshull Street Crown Court heard she has two children, who are both in their twenties. It also heard she was a singer in a band called Solace and went by the name Cleo C. (she was known as Cleo "C" for short.) Judge Wright said: "You are a cruel and heartless woman with no regard for the suffering you caused this man. "The offences involved, in my judgment, were committed in a depraved manner." He told her: "You are a person who lacks a properly developed conscience." Shedding tears, she said: "I am a full time carer and I have to work very hard to earn a living. "I want to apologise for my behaviour." During her interview with police, she said: "I have been drinking wine for several days, before I went for a walk and met with the man. "
