Somehow, I'm able to activate the license. I just selected the text into the Trados Studio 2019 for Windows on one document. Then I copied & pasted to another one. Then I paste it into a third. Then in the tool bar, I saw that the updated license is present. Then I went to shortcuts and here is where I encounter the issue. The update version failed to reset my entire shortcuts. For example, I have shortcut to build.bat and bring print.bat. So, when I click on either of them, I click paste & nothing happened. I was thinking that I need to reset shortcuts. However, the dialog box just says that I don't have valid license and I cannot continue until I do. I can't even access the dialog box (the text is grey) because it said another application is using it. I tried to exit Visual Studio and then restart it but it seems I can't restart the IDE, I can only start and exit. I need help. I cannot open any other IDE or program in my computer. Please help. Thanks. Hello! I've activated a trial copy of Trados Studio 2019 for Windows and it has been working fine on one of my windows. Now, I want to share the license to my husband and try to transfer the license to his computer. When I try to add it to his license, Windows tells me: The company administrator has deactivated this product key because it has been used on this computer. I tried to use the same license on my computer and the same thing happened. Hi, I was able to activate the license on my laptop and it started working. I thought it was great! Unfortunately, when I use my desktop, it always tells me "The activation key has been activated on your computer so that you can update and manage your project templates, but you don't have an appropriate license for this product" When I try to add the activation key on the desktop, it tells me that it is already activated on my laptop.
